ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION

SECTION 1 Unit Description

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all Employees of the Springfield Mass Transit District who solely drive Access Springfield vehicles included in the I.S.L.R.B. Case No. S-RC-96-36 petition dated January 5, 1996 ("Employees").

SECTION 2 Recognition of Bargaining Representative

The Employer will neither negotiate nor enter into any bargaining agreement on behalf of its Employees in the bargaining unit unless it is through duly authorized representatives of the Union.

SECTION 3 Integrity of the Bargaining Unit

The Employer agrees that it will not sponsor or promote, financially or otherwise, any group or labor organization, for the purpose of undermining the Union; nor will it interfere with, restrain, coerce, or discriminate against any of its Employees in connection with their membership in the Union.

ARTICLE 2 UNION SECURITY

SECTION 1 Stewards

The Employer recognizes the right of the Union to designate stewards and alternate stewards in the bargaining unit. The Union shall advise the Employer, at least once annually, or on the first working day after changes occur, as to the identity of the stewards and alternate stewards. Union stewards shall be granted reasonable time during their scheduled shift to conduct union representation activities without loss of pay. Such paid time must be approved by management.

A non-exhaustive list of union representation activities includes adjusting disputes, observing and investigating working conditions, collecting dues/fees, meeting with employees concerning possible union membership, conducting new employee orientations, ascertaining that this Agreement is being adhered to, representation of employees at meetings, including pre-disciplinary meetings, investigating and processing grievances, up to and including arbitration, engaging in union contract negotiations and labor-management meetings with the employer, participating in union steward training, posting or distributing notices or information, and other legitimate union business.

Any leave granted to conduct Union activities which the Employer wants reimbursed by the Union shall be initiated by the Union and agreed to in writing with the Union Representative. The Union shall advise the Employer, at least once annually, or on the first working day after changes occur, as to the identity of the stewards and alternate stewards.

SECTION 2 Access to Premises

Authorized business agents or officers of the Union shall have reasonable access to the facilities of the Employer during the normal business hours of the Employer after providing the Employer with twenty-four (24) hours advance notice stating the purpose of the visit, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties.

SECTION 3 Union Activities

An authorized representative of the Union, such as a steward, will be granted reasonable time off without pay to conduct Union business. Such time off shall be scheduled so as to not unduly interfere with the operations of Employer.

SECTION 4 Directory Information

Upon reasonable written request, the Employer shall provide the Union with the following written information regarding bargaining unit personnel; new hires, promotions, lay-offs, pay increases, demotions, extended leaves and home addresses of record, seniority date, base hourly rate, and member/non-member status. Any Employee information beyond that listed in the first sentence shall be obtained directly from the Employee by the officially designated Union Stewards.

SECTION 5 Union Membership

All newly hired Employees may make application for Union membership any time following the beginning of their employment, but until satisfactory completion of the probationary period provided for in Article 10 shall not have permanent Employee status under this Agreement. No Employee shall be discriminated against in his or her employment based upon Union membership or non-membership.

SECTION 6 New Employee Orientation

The Employer shall allow newly hired Employees to be visited by the appropriate Union steward or Union Representative for a brief orientation, not to exceed fifteen (15) minutes.

SECTION 7 Union Leave

Bargaining Unit Employees shall receive an aggregate of fifteen (15) days per year to attend Union meetings, conferences, conventions, etc. The fifteen (15) days may be used by one Bargaining Unit Employee or shared among Bargaining Unit Employees. Written requests for leave must be submitted to the Employer no less than five (5) working days prior to the leave. If the leave time requested is two days or less, the Employer will allow one Employee per shift to use unpaid leave. Union leave as provided in this section will be granted for the following purposes:

- (a) to fulfill the responsibility of the Union office to which the Employee is elected or appointed;
- (b) to attend meetings held for the purpose of fulfilling the responsibilities of the Union office; or
- (c) to attend conferences or training related to the Union office.

Union leave as provided in this section may be denied by the Employer based upon the operating needs of the Employer.

SECTION 8 Union Logo

Employees shall be permitted to wear one Union pin or button of a size no greater than approximately one and one-half inches (1.5") in diameter along with their regular uniform.

SECTION 9 Bargaining Unit Work

Except specifically provided for in this Agreement, the Employer will not assign bargaining unit work to non-unit workers.

ARTICLE 3
DUES FEES

SECTION 1 Union Dues

The Employer agrees to deduct membership dues, initiation fees and fees for Union programs from the Employee's paychecks upon receipt of a form showing the effective date and signed by the Employee authorizing the deduction of those amounts. The form authorizing the deduction shall be provided to the Employer, by the Union no later than the Friday before the first payday for which the authorization is effective. Employer shall remit monies deducted to the Union along with an itemized statement of such deductions. The deductions shall be in the amount as certified by the Union and authorized by the Employee.

The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits or other forms of liability or costs which may arise out of any action taken by the Employer in compliance with this provision.

SECTION 2. Maintenance of Check-Off

Upon confirmation by the Union that an employee covered by this agreement has authorized checkoff of dues, assessments, or fees, the Employer shall deduct such dues, assessments, and fees from wages owed to that employee, unless the authorization is revoked by the employee in accordance with the terms set forth on the employee's checkoff authorization. Employees may express such authorizations by any means of indicating agreement allowable under state and federal law. To the extent permitted by law, authorized deductions shall be irrevocable, regardless of the employee's membership status, except in accordance with the terms under which an employee voluntarily authorized said deductions. Dues, assessment, and fee revocations are processed by the Union. In the event that an employee revokes their checkoff authorization in accordance with the terms in which they authorized the deductions, the Union will notify the employer after the close of the revocation period.

The Union will submit to the Employer a list of employees who have authorized checkoff and shall provide the Employer with verification that checkoff of dues, assessments, or fees have been authorized by the employee only in the event a question arises about an employee's membership status.

ARTICLE 4 NON DISCRIMINATION

SECTION 1 Prohibition Against Discrimination

Both the Employer and the Union agree not to discriminate against any Employee on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, order of protection status, marital status, physical or mental disability, military status, sexual orientation, or unfavorable discharge from military service,

ARTICLE 5 PERSONNEL FILE

SECTION 1 Inspection

Upon written request by an Employee, the Employer shall permit the Employee to inspect his or her personnel file a reasonable number of times, which shall be no more than twice per calendar year, unless accompanied by a Union representative. Such inspections shall occur within forty- eight (48) hours following receipt of the Employee's written request at the time agreed upon by the Employer and Employee, The Employee shall not be permitted to remove any part of the personnel file from the premises but may obtain a copy of any information contained in the file.

SECTION 2 Union Access

An Employee involved in a current grievance against the Employer may, in writing, authorize a Union representative to inspect his personnel file, subject to the procedures set forth in Section 1 above.

SECTION 3 Employee Rights

If an Employee disagrees with any information contained in the personnel file, the Employee may submit a written statement which shall be included in the file within forty-eight (48) hours after receipt of the written statement by the Employer. Any such statement shall be signed by the Employee and shall specifically indicate the information with which the Employee disagrees.

SECTION 4 Time Limitations

Except as provided herein, oral and written warnings as provided in Article 6, Section 1, shall remain in the Employee's personnel file for twelve (12) months from the date of the issuance of the warning. Any discipline or notices in the Employee's personnel file concerning a violation of the Employer's drug and alcohol policy as described in Article 16, Section 2 hereof or a conviction of a federal, state, or local drug or alcohol offense shall remain in the Employee's personnel file and may be considered and used in any subsequent disciplinary action for drug and alcohol policy violations. All other disciplinary action shall remain in the Employee's file, but after twenty-four (24) months from the date of the infraction or disciplinable offense can no longer be used to build progressive discipline cases. Once a disciplinary action "ages out," the Employee shall move back a step on the ladder of discipline. This means that if the only discipline an Employee has that is still usable for progressive discipline is a 3-day suspension, the Employee would be considered only on the first step of the ladder. (Regardless of what step on the ladder the Employee was placed at the time the discipline was issued, his or her current step on the ladder correlates to the number of disciplines still considered active in his or her file).

ARTICLE 6 DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

SECTION 1 Discipline and Discharge

- (a) The Employer will not discipline or discharge an Employee without just cause. Except as otherwise provided in this section or in the Employer's substance abuse policies or in Article 7, before an Employee can be terminated for just cause, the following progressive disciplinary steps shall be followed:
- (1) For a first incident for which discipline is imposed, an Employee shall receive an oral warning with a written notice to the Union.
 - (2) For the second incident for which discipline is imposed, an Employee shall receive a written warning notice with a copy to the Union.
 - (3) For the third incident for which discipline is imposed, an Employee shall receive a one (1) day suspension (without pay) with a copy of the notice of suspension to the Union.
 - (4) For the fourth incident for which discipline is imposed, the Employee shall receive a three (3) day suspension (without pay) with a copy of the notice of suspension to the Union.
 - (5) For the fifth incident for which discipline is imposed, the Employee will be subject to discharge and the discharge must be in writing to the Employee, with a copy to the Union.
 - (6) In all notices initiating disciplinary action, previous discipline being used in consideration of current discipline shall be listed along with the date it was issued.
- (b) Any Employee shall be subject to discipline, up to and including immediate discharge, based upon a review of the pertinent facts and circumstances, and depending on the severity of the offense, without further notice and without following the steps provided for above under the following circumstances:
- (1) Dishonesty.
 - (2) Recklessness while on duty,
 - (3) Any Employee found in possession of any illegal drug substance, or weapon, while on duty.
 - (4) Being under the influence of alcohol, cannabis, or any illegal or controlled drug or substance, as provided for in the Employer's substance abuse policy, while on duty,
 - (5) Failure to have the necessary driving privileges to operate the vehicles of the Employer as a result of a suspension or revocation of those privileges.
 - (6) Failure to immediately report, or as soon as reasonably practicable, an on-duty accident to the Employer; in all circumstances the report to the Employer must be made before the Employee leaves the scene of the accident.
 - (7) Insubordination, which shall be defined as a refusal to follow a legitimate direction of the Employer. A disagreement is not insubordination unless the Employee, in the course of the disagreement, refuses a legitimate management directive.

- (8) Any other act or conduct that would cause the continued employment of such Employee to be detrimental to the Employer, its Employees, or customers.

SECTION 2 Just Cause

The Employer agrees that disciplinary action shall only be imposed for just cause and shall be imposed as soon as practical after the Employer learns of the underlying occurrence and following a reasonable period of time to investigate the facts and seek such advice and counsel as Employer deems appropriate, Unless extended by agreement between the Employer and the Union, the Employer will impose disciplinary action no later than thirty (30) days after the Employer learns of the act or omission giving rise to the discipline.

SECTION 3 Investigatory Interviews

When the Employer conducts an interview with an Employee for the purpose of determining whether or not that Employee should receive disciplinary action, the Employee may be accompanied by a Union steward at the interview if the Employee desires that representation. If the Employee declines Union representation, he/she will be required to sign a waiver that will be effective only for that particular meeting. If a Union representative is not present and a waiver is not signed, then the meeting will be rescheduled by the management representative with written notice to the Employee and the steward. If at this second meeting no Union representative is present and no waiver is signed, the Employer may proceed with the meeting and impose discipline or take action based upon the meeting or the incident which was the basis for the meeting.

The role of the Union steward shall be limited to assisting the Employee, clarifying the facts and suggesting other Employees who may have knowledge of the facts.

SECTION 4. Reinstatement

If an Employee covered by this Agreement is disciplined or discharged and it is found, either through agreement by the Employer and the Union or by an award of arbitration, that the Employee was disciplined or discharged without just cause, the Employee shall be reinstated upon such terms and conditions as provided for in the settlement agreement or arbitration award.

SECTION 5 Disciplinary Meetings

When the Employer is going to discuss any disciplinary related matter with any Employee the Employee will be informed of the subject matter of the meeting and that the Employee has a right to have a Union Steward present for the meeting. If the Employee chooses not to have a steward present, the Employee will be asked to sign a statement waiving that right, and, if the Employee chooses not to sign, the Employer may so note that fact on the statement and proceed with the meeting.

ARTICLE 7 MISS-OUTS AND ABSENCES

SECTION 1 Miss-outs

A miss-out is a failure to report to work on time when the Employer allows the Employee to work their regularly assigned shift. An Employee's failure to report to work on time when the Employee does not work their regularly assigned shift shall be treated as an absence to be dealt with under the Employer's absenteeism policy. The Employee shall provide notice to the Employer as soon as possible if the Employee is not able to report for work on time. Five miss-outs in any twelve (12) month period shall result in termination. Miss-outs will not be the subject of progressive discipline.

However, no miss-out will be charged to the Employee if the Employee can document an excusable reason for the miss-out such as an accident, medical emergency, or in some instances car problems. This excusable miss-out provision can be used only two (2) times in any twelve (12) month period.

SECTION 2 Absences

An absence or failure to complete assigned work will be considered an Excused Absence if an Employee's absence or failure to complete assigned work is taken as sick time, PLD time, or other approved leave time. The Employee will be given two (2) out of six (6) excused absences without providing documentation of an excusable reason for the absence or failure to complete assigned work, unless the Employer, in its sole discretion, otherwise notifies the Employee that documentation is necessary. The total number of excused absences shall not exceed six (6) in a twelve (12) rolling month period, after which all absences will be unexcused, regardless of pay.

Absences will not be subject to progressive discipline. An employee who incurs four unexcused absences in a twelve (12) rolling month period will be eligible for termination. A written notice will be given to the Employee on each of the first three (3) unexcused absences with a written reminder on the third absence that the next unexcused absence in the ~~six (6)~~ twelve (12) rolling month period could result in termination.

The number of absences is determined by individual occurrence and not by the amount of time of the absence. The following will not be counted against an Employee for purposes of this Section: P.L.D., paid holidays, Employee's birthday, jury duty, bereavement or military leave, and any other leave provided for in this Agreement.

SECTION 3. Pre-Approved Time Off

Any Employee requesting pre-approved PLD time or unpaid leave as provided in Article 13, Section 5 will complete the time off form (Dispatch has forms) and turn it in forty-eight (48) hours in advance for a single day off or fourteen (14) days in advance of using two (2) to five (5) days of PLD. The Employer will return the form approved or denied by the last scheduled work day prior to requested time off, or within five (5) working days of receipt of the request from the Employee, if given well in advance.

ARTICLE 8 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

SECTION 1 Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees to meet and deal with the properly accredited committee of the Union on all grievances and questions regarding wages, hours of work and other conditions of employment that may arise from time to time.

SECTION 2 Definition

A grievance is defined to be:

- (a) Any controversy between Employer and the Union as to any matter involving the interpretation or application of the terms of employment as herein set forth; and
- (b) Any controversy between Employer and the Union as to whether or not any Employee disciplined for violation of any rule of Employer is guilty of such violation.

SECTION 3 Filing of Grievance

In the settlement of grievances under the terms of this Agreement, the following procedure shall be observed:

SECTION 4. Settlement of Grievance and Arbitration

Any grievance presented in a due and timely manner as provided for in Section 3 of this Article shall be handled as follows

Step One:

The Director of Operations shall meet within five (5) days of being presented with the grievance with the grievant and; if requested by the grievant, the steward. The Director of Operations shall respond to the grievance in writing within seven (7) days of the grievance meeting.

Step Two:

If the grievance is not resolved at Step One the Union may submit the grievance to the Managing Director within five (5) days of the receipt of denial of the grievance. The Managing Director shall meet and attempt to resolve the grievance within five (5) days of receipt of the grievance. The meeting shall be with the grievant and, if requested by the grievant, the steward. The Managing Director shall respond to the grievance in writing within seven (7) days of the grievance meeting.

Step Three:

If the grievance is not resolved at Step Two, the parties at any time may jointly elect by written agreement signed by the parties submit the grievance to mediation. The submission shall be to FMCS or to such other mediator as selected by the parties, and the meeting shall be scheduled subject to the mediator's availability. This step shall only apply where the parties mutually agree to utilize it; in all other cases it will be bypassed.

Step Four:

The Union may, if the grievance is unresolved at Step Two submit the grievance to arbitration by giving written notice to the Employer within fifteen (15) days after the failure to resolve the grievance at Step Two. The party demanding arbitration shall request the same in writing stating the question or questions to be arbitrated. The parties shall request that the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service submit a panel of five (5) names from which the Union will strike two (2) names and the Employer will strike two (2) names. The remaining member of the panel shall be the independent arbitrator. The decision of the independent arbitrator named by the parties shall be final and binding upon all interested parties. All the conditions set forth in this Agreement shall remain undisturbed.

The expense of the independent arbitrator, as well as the joint expenses incidental to the arbitration, shall be borne equally by the parties.

SECTION 5 Computation of Time Limits

Approximately fifty percent (50%) of the Employees shall have at least two (2) consecutive days off in each work week.

SECTION 2 Work Day

The regular work day shall consist of one shift lasting between six and one-half (6.50} hours and eight (8) hours. An Employee working more than seven and one-half (7.50) consecutive hours in any work day, including extra-time and overtime, will be given a thirty (30} minute paid meal break at a time near the mid-point of the work day. Saturday work will be covered as extra time/overtime, to be scheduled on a rotating basis amongst all Employees monthly.

Overtime shall consist of any time actually worked over forty (40) hours in any one work week. Paid meal breaks are not included within the calculation of hours worked for overtime purposes.

SECTION 4 Overtime Payment

Overtime shall be paid for at the rate of one and one-half (1-1/2) times the Employee's regular rate.

SECTION 5 Distribution of Overtime and Extra-time

(d) The start and end of an overtime and extra time assignment may not coincide with the start and end of a regular shift in the discretion of the Employer.

SECTION 6 Emergency Call-In

Whenever an Employee is called in or expected to report outside his or her regular hours of work, the Employee will be paid a minimum of one (1) hour's pay at that Employee's usual rate. Should the work take less than one hour, the Employee may be allowed to return home. When the Employee works more than one (1) hour, the Employee will be paid for actual hours worked.

SECTION 7 Work Shift Bid

Employees shall have the opportunity to select the shift of their choice on the basis of their seniority, the most senior Employee shall be given first choice of work shift and other Employees shall make their choices in order of seniority. SECTION 6 Loss of Seniority

Seniority shall be terminated if an Employee: A
